

EFG International annonce son intention de procéder à l'introduction en Bourse d'EFG Financial Products

Zurich, le 25 septembre 2012 – EFG International annonce son intention de procéder à l'introduction en Bourse envisagée d'EFG Financial Products Holding AG dans le courant du quatrième trimestre 2012, en fonction des conditions de marché.

EFG International entend procéder à l'introduction en bourse d'EFG Financial Products Holding AG, son prestataire intégré de solutions d'investissements structurés basé à Zurich, auprès de la SIX Swiss Exchange, dans le courant du quatrième trimestre 2012, selon les conditions de marché. Cette opération s'inscrit dans le cadre de la revue des activités d'EFG International annoncée en octobre 2011, qui visait à réorienter les activités de la banque sur le private banking et prévoyait l'entrée en Bourse d'EFG Financial Products.

Lorsque l'entrée en Bourse aura été finalisée, EFG International réduira sa participation dans EFG Financial Products de 57% à 20% minimum, ce qui lui permettra de renforcer son ratio de fonds propres tier 1 ainsi que d'intensifier sa focalisation sur le private banking. EFG International continuera de pleinement consolider EFG Financial Products à des fins comptables, de supervision réglementaire et de fonds propres réglementaires.

L'intention de procéder à l'introduction en Bourse d'EFG Financial Products reflète également les progrès réalisés par cette entité ces dernières années, ainsi que la conviction qu'elle peut profiter d'une indépendance accrue. EFG Financial Products publiera aujourd'hui son propre communiqué de presse, suite à la présente annonce d'EFG International. Prière de se référer à la page www.efgfp.com.
