1. Our 95-day Notice iCall Account Service

- 1.1 You are already a client of ours. When you request to effect a 95-day Notice iCall Account with us these supplementary terms and conditions and the Bank's General Terms and Conditions will apply to govern the terms and conditions of the account. These terms provide the overall legal framework within which we will operate a 95-day Notice iCall Account.
- 1.2 You confirm that all statements and declarations made by you to open a 95-day Notice iCall Account are true and accurate. You acknowledge that you have read, understood, and agree to be bound by these supplementary terms and conditions.
- 1.3 On depositing funds into a 95-day Notice iCall Account in accordance with these supplementary terms and conditions, the funds shall accrue at an interest rate of Overnight Index Rate plus 0.30% (annual percentage rate). This Overnight Index Rate interest rate will be set on the first Business Day of each month, will be the Overnight Interest Rate which was published four Business Days prior to that first Business Day, and will apply for that calendar month.
- 1.4 The Overnight Index Rate can set at negative values. If this is the case (and in the case of interest calculated pursuant to clause 1.3 or clause 1.13 the yield enhancement does not fully offset the negative value), then you will be charged at the relevant negative interest rate.
- 1.5 Interest will be calculated on a 'simple interest' basis and credited (or where relevant debited) on a monthly basis into (or where relevant from) a separate nominated current account.
- 1.6 We will provide you with a monthly statement of account providing the interest rate earned for the monthly period. We will also provide you with a statement of account for each Repayment Maturity Period.
- 1.7 A 95-day Notice iCall Account may only be opened by you if on the account being opened, you immediately:
  - deposit at least £50,000.00 (or equivalent) into the 95-day Notice iCall Account.

Once the 95-day Notice iCall Account is opened as described above:

  - the minimum balance of funds kept in the 95-day Notice iCall Account is £50,000 (or equivalent); otherwise, the full balance will be transferred into a Repayment Maturity Period and the full balance must be withdrawn; and
  - the maximum amount that can be held in a 95-day Notice iCall Account is £50 million (or equivalent).
- 1.8 The 95-day Notice iCall Account cannot be overdrawn.
- 1.9 The permitted currencies are GBP, USD, and EUR only for funds deposited in the 95-day Notice iCall Account.
- 1.10 The full balance of your deposit will remain in the 95-day Notice iCall Account unless you give notice of withdrawal in accordance with these terms and the applicable Repayment Maturity Period. You are able to make a partial withdrawal, provided that the minimum transfer out of the 95-day Notice iCall Account is £10,000 (or equivalent) and the minimum balance of funds kept in the account must be £50,000 (or equivalent). You should give a notice of withdrawal to us for the amount you wish to withdraw in accordance with clause 1.10.

- 1.11 Notice of any withdrawal must be given with a minimum of 2 Business Days of such withdrawal. Following such notice period, the funds will be placed into the Repayment Maturity Period.
- 1.12 The amount you wish to withdraw (for either partial or complete withdrawals) which is specified in a notice of withdrawal from you to us will be repaid on the Repayment Maturity Date.
- 1.13 Interest will be paid (or where relevant charged) at an interest rate of Overnight Index Rate (reflecting data from the day prior) plus 0.10% (annual percentage rate) for the Repayment Maturity Period.
- 1.14 Withdrawals (partial or complete) are not permitted before maturity of the Repayment Maturity Period.
- 1.15 We may elect to withdraw the 95-day Notice iCall Account at any time in which case, we must give you minimum of 10 Business Days' notice. Following this notice period, we will promptly place the funds in the account into the Repayment Maturity Period.
- 1.16 You must not assign, transfer, charge, encumber or otherwise deal with in any manner whatsoever, the 95-day Notice iCall Account and interest without our prior written consent. If all or any part of the 95-day Notice iCall Account principal and/or interest has been assigned, transferred, charged, encumbered or otherwise dealt with, whether or not in favour of us or any third party you agree that you shall not be entitled to withdraw all or any part of the 95-day Notice iCall Account principal or interest unless we consent in writing, such consent to be subject to any conditions we consider reasonable at our absolute discretion.
- 1.17 We shall be entitled (but not obliged) to act only on written instructions, requests, directions, consents, waivers, notices, and other communications, (herein collectively called Notices) received from you. You agree to be bound by all written Notices which purport to come from you or any third party which has your consent. If it is shown that such Notices did not come from you or a third party acting with your consent you will be liable for all damages, losses, costs, and expenses suffered by you and/or us if you have acted with gross negligence. You will also be liable for all damages, losses, costs, and expenses suffered by us/you if you have acted fraudulently. We have to prove you acted fraudulently or with gross negligence.
