

EFG International officially launches business in Chile

Zurich, 15 March 2016. EFG International announces the official opening of its business in Chile.

As previously announced and following the granting of regulatory approvals, EFG International has established a new onshore business in Chile, reflecting its commitment to grow its presence in the Latin America market. The EFG Chile office operates in the country with a local brokerage license, enabling it to offer clients a combination of local and international wealth management services.

Benjamin Hughes and Gonzalo Ferrer are managing partners of the new business. The EFG Chile office will be officially opened on Wednesday, 16 March 2016.
