

EFG International appoints new Chairman of UK business

Zurich, 30 June 2008 – EFG International has appointed Lord Evans of Temple Guiting CBE as Chairman of its UK business.

EFG International's London-based subsidiary, EFG Private Bank Limited, has appointed Lord Evans of Temple Guiting CBE as its Chairman, effective from 24th June 2008. Matthew Evans joined EFG Private Bank in October 2007 to advise its CEO, John Williamson, in the areas of business development, raising the bank's profile in the UK, and assisting business expansion.

Matthew Evans has a distinguished record of political and public service. He was a Minister in the House of Lords, where he was a spokesman for a range of offices including the Treasury and the Department of Trade and Industry. He has held a number of senior positions in the arts, including Vice Chair of the British Film Institute. He also has an outstanding commercial pedigree, with a successful career at publisher Faber & Faber Ltd. spanning nearly four decades (Managing Director 1972 – 1993; Chairman 1981 – 2003).

Contacts

EFG Private Bank

John Williamson
+44 207 491 9111

EFG International

Media Relations
+41 44 212 7387
mediarelations@efginternational.com

Investor Relations
+41 44 212 7377
investorrelations@efginternational.com

About EFG International

EFG International is a global private banking group offering private banking and asset management services, headquartered in Zurich. EFG International's group of private banking businesses currently operate in 50 locations in over 30 countries, with circa 2,000 employees. EFG International's registered shares (EFGN) are listed on the SWX Swiss Exchange. EFG International is a member of the EFG Group headquartered in Geneva, Switzerland, which is the third-largest banking group in Switzerland by Tier-1 Capital.

EFG International
Practitioners of the craft of private banking